

LAST EDITION.

Order the
Post-Dispatch

Delivered by carrier.

Only 10c a Week.

LAST EDITION.

Only 10c a Week.

The Daily and
Sunday Post-Dispatch,
delivered by carrier.

The Best Sunday Paper in St. Louis.

PRICE ONE CENT

VOL. 47, NO. 17.

TUESDAY EVENING—ST. LOUIS—AUGUST 27, 1895.

No Dull Season With the Post-Dispatch Circulation Boom.

A REPUBLICAN SIDE SHOW.

"Sound Money" Campaign Conducted From Gen. Noble's Office.

Taint of Republicanism.

Country Postmasters and Federal Office-holders Made to Distribute Gold Bug Literature.

A political organization known as the St. Louis Democratic Sound Currency Club has its literary bureau in the law offices of Gen. John W. Noble, President Harrison's Secretary of the Interior.

The club is officered thus: Edward C. Kehr, President; John Green, M. D., Vice-President; George R. Lockwood, Secretary; Moses N. Sale, Treasurer. Executive Committee—Leviett Bell, Arthur Lee, Jonathan Rice, Frederick N. Judson and Charles F. Orthwein.

The club's literary bureau seems to also be its headquarters for general work, though in the absence of Secretary Lockwood this could not be verified. Gen. Noble explained that Mr. Lockwood is now in Virginia with his family and will not return to the city until Sept. 3.

Of course, the General denies that he has anything to do with the conduct of "The St. Louis Democratic Sound Currency Club's" literary bureau. "George," explained Benjamin Harrison's ex-Secretary of the Interior, referring to Secretary Lockwood, "George has been in my office twelve or fifteen years. As far as I know he is running the club. I hear him dictating to his stenographer nearly every day when he is here, and he talks mighty good hard money sense, too. George, though, is a Democrat, while I am a Republican, and we don't discuss politics much. No; I have nothing to do with the club, and he had perhaps would not have known of its existence had its literary bureau not been located right under my nose."

"The young lady over there," continued Gen. Noble, pointing to the handsome female at a desk a few feet away, "can tell you all about Lockwood's club."

"What do you do as the stenographer of the St. Louis Democratic Sound Currency Club?" a Post-Dispatch reporter asked the young lady after Gen. Noble had introduced him.

"Oh, a variety of things," she replied. "I send out sound money literature of all sorts to every part of Missouri, as well as distribute a good deal of it in Illinois and Kentucky."

"But in the absence of Secretary Lockwood who does it?"

"That's simple and easy enough," said the young lady. "Before he left he told me what to do and I have merely been following his instructions."

"What is the character of the literature that you send out?"

"Speeches, tracts, discussions and so forth," was the reply. "We have sent out a great many copies of Secretary Carlisle's speeches, as well as copies of the speech Congressman Josiah Patterson of Memphis delivered here. Then, too, there is a publication in New York called 'Sound Currency' which we buy by the wholesale and distribute free of cost. Besides these, we send out smaller tracts gotten up here in St. Louis."

"Who gets them up?"

"Mr. Lockwood, I suppose." "Does Gen. Noble contribute to this organization?" he reported in a tone loud enough for the General to hear. The question had the desired effect of bringing the ex-secretary to his feet again.

"He does," he said. "I've got nothing to do with this movement and don't want my name used in connection with it. When it is finished, I advise Gen. Lockwood about it and told him that he had better keep out of it, as this money dispute would settle itself after awhile."

"Gen. Noble's vigorous denial" by Gen. Noble's vigorous denial" by the reporter went as directed.

Go over in the Laclede Building across the river, and you will find him. He can tell you all about it," she commanded him.

The reporter went as directed.

"Why, yes, I'm a member of the Executive Committee of the St. Louis Club, and Mr. Noble, who is a Post-Dispatch reporter called on him. I helped start the club and know all about it. Mr. Lockwood is secretary and attends to all the business of the club, and is doing a great deal for us. It is true our literary bureau is in Gen. Noble's law office, but that is because of the fact that Mr. Lockwood is a long and intimate association with the General who is a Republican and in no way connected with our club. The work is costing us a great deal, but I am doing my best to accomplish something good. We have already organized two clubs in the State—one at Hannibal and another at Jefferson City, with a third at St. Louis, and we have only just begun. When we get more money, and I think that will be forthcoming in due time, we will move over from the end and more vigorously and effectively. We are making arrangements to tour Congressmen Josiah Patterson through Missouri in the fall, and we will be able to get him to sit in halls to hear him. This will cost us considerable money, as we will have to pay him well, but I'm not uneasy about getting it."

"Where and from whom do you get the money with which to meet these expenses?"

"It comes in the shape of voluntary contributions from members of the club and people on the outside who are in sympathy with our cause."

"Will you give the Post-Dispatch the names of some of these contributors?"

"Not one of them I can think of doing that," said Mr. Bell. "For one thing, the name of our club is that the name of no contributor is to be known to the public."

"Is it the name of C. C. Maffitt or one of the others?"

"No, neither one of them is an active member, but they and all their friends are in the club."

"To whom do you send your literature?"

AN INSPIRING SPECTACLE.

Magnificent Parade of Knights Templar in Boston.

ST. LOUISANS WELL IN LINE.

The Splendid Exhibition of Numbers from New England Rivalled by Commanders from the West.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of over 25,000 Knights Templar to-day, and with one accord pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston. The clear skies and hot sun of the past two days had given way to heavy clouds, but finally the sun broke through the clouds and vigorously endeavored to drive the mists away.

Although a majority of the Knights spent last night until late hour entertaining friends or being entertained, they were astir this morning. The parade started at 10 o'clock.

Trains from every direction brought thousands of uniform Templars and their friends to all the depots, and the depots were of almost suffocating density. From every State commandery began to arrive at an early hour their commanders and officers, and the streets near the depots echoed with the din of scores of bands and the tramp of arriving knights and supporters. The roads were completely overwhelmed by the magnitude of the crowd.

Everywhere within a radius of twenty miles of Boston the day is officially a holiday. Most of the factories in nearby cities are closed, which helped to swell the crowds who watched the procession.

The police appointments were well-nigh perfect. Shortly before the parade started platoons of officers were sent through which the Knights were to pass and roped them off, and until the last division passed no traffic of any kind, was allowed to pass through.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The police appointments were well-nigh perfect. Shortly before the parade started platoons of officers were sent through which the Knights were to pass and roped them off, and until the last division passed no traffic of any kind, was allowed to pass through.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

At 9 o'clock the commanders of the first division, all in full livery, gathered on Commonwealth Avenue, near Berkely street, and at about the same hour the other divisions began to take up their places in the avenue of the Knights.

The lines of the parade were formed in the divisions in the column of double sections.

THE REPUBLICAN SIDE SHOW, ALIAS THE CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION.

FOUGHT WITH.

WINCHESTERS.

Desperate Encounter in Which Four Men Were Killed.

SEVERAL MORE WOUNDED.

The Result of an Old Feud Between the Lloyd and Thomas Families.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The White House mail this morning bore the commission of Matt W. Ransom to be United States Minister to Mexico. The commissioners of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as Chief Marshal, with Right Eminent Sir Charles Marshall, with ninety-three aides from the most prominent Knights of the Boston Commandery as aides, included the representatives of the Grand Commanderies of New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts. The chief of staff was Eminent Sir Henry Howe, assisted by eleven aides. The right of line was given to Topaz. The Knights of the Order of Knights Commandery series were bodies from Baltimore, Nebraska, West Virginia, Colorado, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Wyoming.

The second division was led by Eminent Sir Edward F. Riddell, Deputy Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as Chief Marshal, with Right Eminent Sir Charles Marshall, with ninety-three aides from the most prominent Knights Commandery of America; Boston Commandery; Detroit Commandery; and special guests to the Master Grand Master, Hugh McC

GREETED BY THEIR OLD COMRADES.

German-American Veterans of the Franco-Prussian War.

RECEPTION AT BREMERHAVEN

Music, Addresses, Hand-Shaking and Cheers for the Emperor and Fatherland.

BREMERHAVEN, Aug. 27.—The German-American war veterans were accorded a warm reception on their arrival here by the Veterans' Association of this city and by delegations from other veterans' associations from different parts of Germany. President Hinch, of the Union of Comrades in Arms, met them on board the Fulda and greeted the visitors in a brief address. The Americans then landed at the quay, where the veterans were assembled with the band of the Marine Artillery on their right. The veterans marched in review, the people of the others, and Herr Rock, president of the Lower Weser District, made a patriotic and enthusiastic speech, concluding with a shout for cheer for the Emperor. The Marine band then played the National anthem and the veterans joined in the words. Herr Schaeffer, president of the Union of Comrades Americans and called for cheers for Bremerhaven, which were heartily given. The different veterans organizations had come to Bremerhaven, where the American representatives handed to the presidents of the German associations the American medals. The reception lasted until 12 m., and at 3:30 p.m., after receiving commemorative medals struck for the occasion by the Senate.

NEED 50,000 MORE.

Spain Must Send Reinforcements for Her Army in Cuba.

Special Correspondence from the Post-Dispatch.

HAVANA, Cuba, Aug. 21.—A cable dispatch from Madrid reports an interview with Gen. Salcedo, in which he says Gen. Campos commissioned him to express to the Queen Regent his (Campos') pessimistic impression that the government would not put up extra financial efforts to finish the "gen. Campos," according to the interview, "recognizes Antonio Maceo's exceptional services to the country and his opponents' weakness and carelessness. Political divisions have weakened patriotism and it is necessary to reconstruct the Spanish Army on moral and spiritual grounds, the white race as opposed to the morale of the blacks."

Gen. Salcedo said he was authorized by Gen. Campos to announce that the war would be ended next March.

He considers it imperative that by Nov. 1 both sides must be ready to be handed over to the peace commissioners. Political divisions have weakened patriotism and it is necessary to reconstruct the Spanish Army on moral and spiritual grounds, the white race as opposed to the morale of the blacks."

Gen. Salcedo said he was authorized by Gen. Campos to announce that the war would be ended next March.

The fight on Quay increases in bitterness.

MAY BE TWO CONVENTIONS.

Gilkeson Has the Keys of Harrisburg

SCHOOL GIRLS' REMNANT SALE

Scruggs, Vandeventer & Barney
DRY GOODS CO.

Pronounced Reductions

IN

Remnants of Wool Dress Goods,

SUITED PARTICULARLY FOR

Children's School Dresses and Bicycle Skirts.

Are of the best goods manufactured, and at

About Half Their Regular Value.

They should not be overlooked.

THIS IS THE LAST WEEK OF THE SALE.

BOTH Factions CLAIM VICTORY.

The Fight on Quay Increases in Bitterness.

MAY BE TWO CONVENTIONS.

Opera-House, Where the Delegates Are to Meet.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 27.—The political situation here to-day appears to be just as uncertain as ever. Neither faction will give out positive figures, leaders contenting themselves with the statement that their faction is on top. At the anti-Quay headquarters David Martin and L. L. Clark, both prominent, appear to have more confidence, which has characterized their every action during the past twenty-four hours. They say the fight is over and that Quay is beaten.

At the Quay headquarters the information is of just the opposite character. Ex-Senator C. C. Congdon, Representative Robinson and Senator Quay appear just as confident as ever that they have enough delegates to control the convention.

There will be two sets of admission tickets and an inevitable clash of authority. Whether the clash will be carried to the extent of two conventions or a prolongation caused by the events of the day. The leaders of both factions held conferences this morning.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been lost. It was unknown whether the Adelaisde was seen shortly afterwards going into Beacon Basin, Brooklyn, but although disengaged from the Narrows.

Capt. Jacobs of the Adelaisde made a statement that the amiables staying in the hullarks of the Adelaisde and causing her to keel over. She righted again, however, and with a shriek jumped into the water. Mr. Evans jumped in after her, although his wife said he could not swim, and the Miss Norton, who Mrs. Evans was chaperoning, and the Misses Dorn restrained Mrs. Evans from following her husband. He grabbed a hawser of the hullarks and was now unconscious. Miss Norton was helped aboard.

The Adelaisde drifted away, while cries of help were heard from the two boats which were lowered reported on their return that the captain of the yacht Miss Norton and Mr. Evans had been

St. Louis Post-Dispatch
PUBLISHED BY THE PULATZER PUBLISHING CO.
FRED W. JOSEPH PULATZER,
CHARLES H. JONES,
Editor and Manager,
Office 512 Olive Street.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

BY CARRIER, ST. LOUIS AND SUBURBS
Daily and Sunday—Per Week..... 10 Cents
Daily and Sunday—Per Month..... 40 Cents
Sunday—Per Month..... 20 Cents
BY MAIL
Daily and Sunday—Per Annum..... $6.00
Daily and Sunday—6 Months..... $3.00
Daily and Sunday—Per Month..... 18 Cents
Sunday—Per Annum..... $1.00
Sunday—6 Months..... $0.50

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor by reporting the same to this office.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,

St. Louis, Mo.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.
Editorial Room..... 400
Business Office..... 400
S. C. Beckwith, Agt. Foreign Advertising
Eastern Office, 50 Tribune Building, New York
Chicago Office, 405 The Rockery.

CIRCULATION

OF THE
Sunday Post-Dispatch.

A Sworn Statement of Circulation.

State of Missouri, City of St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 27, 1895.—
Personally appeared before me, A. G. W. Jones,
Manager of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch,
who doth say that the regular edition of the Sunday Post-Dispatch the eight previous Sundays, after deducting all spoiled and left-over
copies, was as follows:

July 7.....	80,519
July 14.....	78,091
July 21.....	79,156
July 28.....	80,497
August 4.....	80,440
August 11.....	80,909
August 18.....	81,128
August 25.....	82,414
Total.....	643,579
Average per Sunday.....	80,409

On the 10th day of August, 1895, the Sunday Post-Dispatch before me, A. G. W. Jones,
Manager of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch,
who doth say that the regular edition of the Sunday Post-Dispatch the eight previous Sundays, after deducting all spoiled and left-over
copies, was as follows:

EDWARD BURELL,
Notary Public, City of St. Louis, Mo.

My term expires Dec. 8, 1895.

Circulation Books always open to advertisers and an examination earnestly invited.

WHAT THE PLATFORM MEANS.

The Democratic State Convention which met at Louisville and nominated Gen. Hardin for Governor adopted without change the money plan adopted by the National Democratic Convention of 1892, which is as follows:

We call for the both gold and silver as the standard money of one Mexican dollar, and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage; but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin.

Gen. Hardin claims that this plan means bimetallism. The "sound money" papers and speakers are denouncing him for placing that interpretation upon it.

The editor of the Post-Dispatch is in a position to throw some light upon this question. He was chairman of the Committee on Resolutions at the National Convention and was also chairman of the sub-committee that framed the platform subsequently ratified by the general committee and by the convention. He participated in all the discussions on the platform and knows what it was declared to mean by those who framed and adopted it.

The money or coinage plank was debated for seven hours before an agreement was reached upon it in its present form. Mr. Patterson of Colorado and Senator Daniel of Virginia, members of the sub-committee or the general committee, or ratified by the convention. If Mr. Cleveland had announced in his letter of acceptance that he interpreted it to mean gold monometalism, he would not have received 100 votes in the Electoral College.

Gen. Hardin's interpretation of the plank is the one avowedly held at the time by its framers. The claim that it means gold monometalism was never heard of until within the last six months, and was invented to meet the exigencies of an Administration determined to repudiate the platform and afraid to do it openly.

A SYMBOL NOT A FETICH.

A strange situation is presented in McLean County, Illinois, where 200 school directors have met and resolved that a law requiring the raising on each schoolhouse of an American flag, the symbol of free government, is "un-American and despotic," and have determined to resist the law in court.

But the mass of Americans who are clear and firm in the political faith which the flag represents will heartily endorse the resolution and fervently hope for the success of the protesting school directors. It is time to put a stop to the Jinga campaign of legislation to force the American people to stoke a fire up at all times and in all public places.

The American flag abroad represents the power of a great, free people, and a standard of liberty to which the oppressed of all nations may turn. At present it stands for principles of government, which secure the sovereignty of the people and guarantee their rights and liberties. In so far as it symbolizes these things it is worthy of honor and reverence. To try to force a public show of reverence for it regardless of its meaning is not only to violate the principles it represents, but to change a glorious symbol into a meaningless fetish, a painted idol of a decadent and dying race, to turn real reverence into slavish fetish-worship.

The alleged object of the flag-raising laws is to instill into the youth a love for the flag. This cannot be done by the meaningless flaunting of a silk rag in their faces, but by implanting in them a knowledge of and devotion for the principles the flag represents. They should be taught to honor the flag only for the principles it symbolizes and to maintain the principles in order that the flag may be worthy of honor.

The flag is still glorious because the flag-worshippers have not yet been able to deprive it of its meaning, but if they're allowed to have their way it will soon be reduced to a commonplace and unloved rag.

FARCICAL CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS.

The Post-Dispatch has often called attention to the evil consequences of the abuse of the practice of accepting minor pleas for grave offenses and nolle prossing cases in the Criminal Court.

The extent of the abuse and the seriousness of the consequences were shown to some extent in the record of the May term and the statement of expenses for the last fiscal year.

During the May term so far sixty-eight cases have been disposed of. In twenty-eight of them minor pleas were accepted and Workhouse sentences imposed. Twenty-three were nolle prossed and five others there were convictions of minor offenses or acquittal. The city's criminal costs, exclusive of the Criminal Court's share of the expense of maintaining the Jury Commissioner's office, amounted last year to $5,656,08, more than all the divisions of the civil court.

The offenses for which minor pleas are accepted include such crimes as bigamy, burglary, robbery in the first degree, forgery, assault to kill and other penitentiary crimes. Not only is the way of the criminal made easy, but the Workhouse is overcrowded, the city is filled with criminals who are encouraged by light punishment to commit other crimes, and the city is saddled with enormous costs which the State should bear.

When so great a proportion of felony cases are nolle prossed or reduced in degree to minor offenses, either there must be many gross blunders in the charges and indictments or the prosecuting officers shirk their duty.

In either case the administration of justice is turned into a burdensome fare and is brought into contempt.

A BLOW AT THE CODE.
While we are trying to transplant in America soil one Mexican dollar and silver as the standard money of one Mexican dollar, and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage; but when a municipal statesman is buying beer for his fellow-citizens he is likely to be suspected of almost any ambition.

Our Chicago friends should be getting ready to come down to our great and permanent Exposition. It is to be hoped the railroads will make fares from Chicago especially low this year.

It is bad for the city and bad for the State when Uncle Filley dodges the honest and painstaking reporters. Uncle Filley should see the accuracy cards in the Post-Dispatch office.

There ought to be nothing in the way of a vigorous foreign policy on the part of Secretary Olney. No corporations or trusts are affected by standing up for American rights abroad.

The American man is earning $100,000.00 a year in eggs alone. The grateful nation should see no time in framing a testimonial to this noble fowl. May her cockle never grow fat.

There is a rude poetic justice in this sentence, which combines a term of hard labor in prison with obligation to assume the financial responsibilities of the victim's family. It will do much to take the false glamor out of duelling and discourage the practice.

But the best evidence that duelling is not the verdict of the jury or the severe sentence of the Judge, but the fact that popular sentiment supports both. When the people disown duelling it has lost its sole support. It has gone out of fashion.

BORDERS "BAD MEN."
There seems to be a great deal of antagonism in the Indian Territory to the principles of radiosity and express men, bankers and men who own good horses, for the Christians, a breed next to outlaws, are going to set up in business in that section. It seems that an outlaw, like ordinary persons, cannot learn anything except by personal experience.

In the face of the long, striped row of horsestealers who adorn the walks of the various penitentiaries, it is a mystery why young men choose to engage in the industry. Notwithstanding the James the Christians and the Daltons have gone down to premature graves with bullet holes between their shoulder blades, there always seem to be a younger set coming along, and desperate enough to take their places.

If our "increased firmness in foreign affairs" extended to getting control of our own financial affairs it would be a good thing.

Mr. Campbell is exceedingly kind to Mr. Biscoe if gubernatorial votes are to be swapped for legislative ballots.

A Campbell may go through the eye of a needle as easily as he can be elected Governor this year on a straddle.

The fact that Miss Rockefeller is to marry an American will cast a gloom over the titled paupers of Europe.

What may be supposed to be the future punishment of those who sell places in the Fire Department?

Enough beer was consumed on that river excursion to drown the Mayor.

Over in Texas expert testimony is at a discount.

The Great Masonic Event.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

To every Knight a plait of beans.

Now Boston swells offers.

And in these hospitable scenes

there for scoffers.

dangled at the lower end of an unromantic rope before many weeks. The Christians should not forget the brief, but brilliant, career of the late Wm. Cook. Where is he now? Behind prison bars for life, engaged in the uninteresting calling of pounding very hot and extremely hard iron.

It doesn't pay to be a border outlaw. If their stealing was footed up per head, after the proper division, it wouldn't average 25 cents a day, and any ambitious young man can double that amount cutting cord wood or handling a cattle whip.

Don't do it, Mr. Christian. Most outlaws die with their boots on and all of them die paupers.

If the editor of the Globe-Democrat would read his own news columns more carefully, he would not commit such a blunder as saying that the free silver delegation from Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) in the Ohio Democratic Convention was elected to sit outside on the curbside. The free silver delegation was seated by a vote of the convention, and it was the Brice men who were shown the door.

The Post-Dispatch has made an interesting discovery. The literary bureau of the St. Louis Democratic Sound Currency Club is located in the law offices of Gen. John W. Noble, who was President Harrison's Secretary of the Interior. When the Democrats of Missouri received the "sound money" literature which is being sent to them by the men they will understand the kind of Republican annex from which it comes.

In an open letter published elsewhere, the St. Louis Sanitary Co. presents its side of the question involved in the complaints against its South St. Louis plant. It contains some pertinent facts and will probably provoke an answer from the committee which has been claiming that the works are a nuisance that should be abated.

The opposition in Louisville to Gen. Hardin has aroused the State press of Kentucky, and they are filling the air with protesting music. The bolters have lost ground in attempting to set aside the nominees. At every step they have blundered.

In the manipulation of Democratic conventions this year the hand of the money power is but too plainly visible. The money power is insatiate. It ought to be content with the control of the criminal made easy, but the Workhouse is overcrowded, the city is filled with criminals who are encouraged by light punishment to commit other crimes, and the city is saddled with enormous costs which the State should bear.

It seems that good pay does not make Spanish officials honest. Though they are paid handsomely in Cuba, we have Sig. Aquabala's testimony that they set aside all they can. Honest men and poets are born, not made.

While we have been talking about annexing Cuba we have not given a thought to the Mexican scheme for annexing Cuba to Mexico. The southern republic is overcrowded, the city is filled with criminals who are encouraged by light punishment to commit other crimes, and the city is saddled with enormous costs which the State should bear.

When so great a proportion of felony cases are nolle prossed or reduced in degree to minor offenses, either there must be many gross blunders in the charges and indictments or the prosecuting officers shirk their duty.

In either case the administration of justice is turned into a burdensome fare and is brought into contempt.

A BLOW AT THE CODE.
While we are trying to transplant in America soil one Mexican dollar and silver as the standard money of one Mexican dollar, and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage; but when a municipal statesman is buying beer for his fellow-citizens he is likely to be suspected of almost any ambition.

Our Chicago friends should be getting ready to come down to our great and permanent Exposition. It is to be hoped the railroads will make fares from Chicago especially low this year.

It is bad for the city and bad for the State when Uncle Filley dodges the honest and painstaking reporters. Uncle Filley should see the accuracy cards in the Post-Dispatch office.

There ought to be nothing in the way of a vigorous foreign policy on the part of Secretary Olney. No corporations or trusts are affected by standing up for American rights abroad.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward has written a new novel, which will be published as "Sir George Tracy." It will be published as a serial in the Century, beginning in November.

Nearly every picture of Queen Victoria represents her as wearing her crown, but as a matter of fact she has hardly had it on her head a score of times during her long reign.

The American man is earning $100,000.00 a year in eggs alone. The grateful nation should see no time in framing a testimonial to this noble fowl. May her cockle never grow fat.

The American man is earning $100,000.00 a year in eggs alone. The grateful nation should see no time in framing a testimonial to this noble fowl. May her cockle never grow fat.

There is a rude poetic justice in this sentence, which combines a term of hard labor in prison with obligation to assume the financial responsibilities of the victim's family. It will do much to take the false glamor out of duelling and discourage the practice.

But the best evidence that duelling is not the verdict of the jury or the severe sentence of the Judge, but the fact that popular sentiment supports both. When the people disown duelling it has lost its sole support. It has gone out of fashion.

BORDERS "BAD MEN."
There seems to be a great deal of antagonism in the Indian Territory to the principles of radiosity and express men, bankers and men who own good horses, for the Christians, a breed next to outlaws, are going to set up in business in that section. It seems that an outlaw, like ordinary persons, cannot learn anything except by personal experience.

In the face of the long, striped row of horsestealers who adorn the walks of the various penitentiaries, it is a mystery why young men choose to engage in the industry. Notwithstanding the James the Christians and the Daltons have gone down to premature graves with bullet holes between their shoulder blades, there always seem to be a younger set coming along, and desperate enough to take their places.

If our "increased firmness in foreign affairs" extended to getting control of our own financial affairs it would be a good thing.

Mr. Campbell is exceedingly kind to Mr. Biscoe if gubernatorial votes are to be swapped for legislative ballots.

A Campbell may go through the eye of a needle as easily as he can be elected Governor this year on a straddle.

The fact that Miss Rockefeller is to marry an American will cast a gloom over the titled paupers of Europe.

What may be supposed to be the future punishment of those who sell places in the Fire Department?

Enough beer was consumed on that river excursion to drown the Mayor.

Over in Texas expert testimony is at a discount.

The Great Masonic Event.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

To every Knight a plait of beans.

Now Boston swells offers.

And in these hospitable scenes

there for scoffers.

Just Catching Its Breath.

From the Middletown Chipp.

The silver eagle, dying out! Well, hardly.

It is just catching its breath again for another year.

And in these hospitable scenes

there for scoffers.

Just Catching Its Breath.

From the Middletown Ch

FROM EARLY MORN TILL DEWY EVE.

St. Louis May Have Racing All the Day Long.

THREE TRACKS OPERATING.

Foster to Run in the Morning, the Fair Grounds in the Afternoon and South Side at Night.

In view of the fact that the Fair Grounds will not close for some time at least, Col. Tom Rodman, Fred Foster's adjutant, was asked Monday what the Sportman's Park race track promoters proposed to do about it, and in reply he said: "Foster is on the best of terms with Mr. Maffitt and Mr. Gwynn, and although I am not authorized to speak for him, I do not believe he will antagonize the Fair Grounds."

"Well," said Tom, "how about the Saratoga plan, or to be more definite, I think we could raise successfully in the morning, commencing say, about 10 or 11 o'clock, which would give us time enough to run off a good start before the Fair Grounds throws open its gates."

If Foster puts his scheme in execution St. Louis will certainly have all the racing it wants, commencing with the fact that the game will then be going on continuously in the morning, afternoon and night.

Ed Corrigan, the master of Hawkhorne, will split his big stable into two divisions for the fall campaign, sending one string here and the other over the Louisville-Oakley-Latonia road. Tommy Muller received word from him Monday that he would be here in a few days with the bill of lading, and that he will bring Marci Berger or some other first-class jockey along with him. The Corrigan stable includes Handsome, Leo, Ladd, B. C., Billie, Little Joe, Jim Murphy, The Ironmaster, Percy, Senator Iby, Vassal, Squarefoot and numerous other well-known performers.

In connection with the banishment from the Fair Grounds of Trainer John Mingle and his stable, Minnie Mackin, Judi Pefus stated this morning that he had never reason to believe the mare was a "dope" fiend. Minnie Mackin belongs to a woman named Mrs. Donovan. The judges had the mare watched Monday, before she went to the Temple, the donor of the trophy, a few days ago, for his decision on the question.

The reply states that the order is to be completed by the two teams standing one and two in the championship column at the close of the meet. The question is whether the winner will be interesting to watch the struggle between Baltimore, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Boston, Cincinnati, Philadelphia and Chicago.

The Giants took three straight from the Browns and sent the percentage of their wins up to 100 per cent. In the three games the St. Louis team started well and looked like winners, but they were not the best of the game. Individually the team is composed of good players and it seems curious that they cannot get along without the services of Doug Cooley, Quinn, Elv. Otten, Peits and Breitstein are not good men, and Miller is valuable in all around capacity. The team is not fair, and the Browns have not proved it bad, but why these men collectively are drifting downward is a poser.

OUTBATTED AND LOST.

The Giant Scored the Victory in the Seventh Innings.

Although the Browns were beaten the Giants in Monday's game, the latter had no trouble in securing the victory. The Browns lost the game in the seventh inning when a high throw by Quinn and a miss by Breitstein in attempt to catch Van Haltren at the plate let in the runs. The score:

Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
New York.
Brown. 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 4
Batteries—Clark and Parrel; Breitstein and Peits. Hits—New York 16, Browns 14. Errors—New York 2, Browns 4.

Other Games.

AT BOSTON 3, Pittsburgh 2. Batteries—Ganzell and Ganzell; Hawley and Merritt. Hits—Pittsburgh 6. Errors—Boston 1. Pittsburgh 4.

AT PHILADELPHIA—Philadelphia 5, Cleveland 4. Batteries—Harrington and Young and O'Connor. Hits—Philadelphia 12, Cleveland 7. Errors—Philadelphia 2, Cleveland 7.

AT BALTIMORE—Baltimore 8, Cincinnati 7. Batteries—Hennings, Clarkson and Clark; Rhines and Vaughn. Hits—Baltimore 15, Cincinnati 16. Errors—Baltimore 1, Cincinnati 5.

AT BROOKLYN—Brooklyn 7, Louisville 2. Batteries—Kennedy and Daily; Weyhing and Verner. Hits—Brooklyn 7, Louisville 5. Errors—Brooklyn 3. Louisville 15.

AT WASHINGTON—Washington 3, Chicago 2. Batteries—Meredith and McClellan. Hits—Washington 15, Chicago 14. Errors—Washington 2, Chicago 6. Game called at the end of the eighth inning on account of darkness.

Where They Play.

St. Louis at Brooklyn. Louisville at Cincinnati. Cincinnati at Baltimore. Cleveland at Philadelphia. Pittsburgh at Boston. Chicago at Washington.

Something to eat for you will play with his lion today, and the two teams standing one and two in the championship column at the close of the meet. The question is whether the winner will be interesting to watch the struggle between Baltimore, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Boston, Cincinnati, Philadelphia and Chicago.

CHOYNESKI AND GODFREY.

Joe Is Confident of Repeating His Victory Over George.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 27.—Joe Choynski, the light heavyweight champion, arrived from Louisville, Ky., last evening and boarded a train a few hours later for Boston. Choynski is to meet George Godfrey in the Sunbeam Athletic Club of Boston, Mass., Thursday night. Choynski says he is in fine condition and, having defeated George in fifteen rounds in the few years ago, naturally expects to repeat the trick.

WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIPS.

A. A. U. Athletes Will Compete in Chicago Next Saturday.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 27.—Next Saturday the Western championships of the American Athletic Union will be decided at the Chicago Athletic Association. The entries are as follows: the Aurora as they might be, the Knights, the North Stars, the Lions, the Knights, the Sunbeam Athletic Club of Boston, Mass., Thursday night. Choynski says he is in fine condition and, having defeated George in fifteen rounds in the few years ago, naturally expects to repeat the trick.

The entries which were given out by Manager Cornell of the Athletic Association are as follows: the Knights, the Lions, the Knights, the North Stars, the Lions, the Knights, the Sunbeam Athletic Club of Boston, Mass., Thursday night. Choynski says he is in fine condition and, having defeated George in fifteen rounds in the few years ago, naturally expects to repeat the trick.

"We have no desire to lose our autonomy, political or commercial. Canada is a protective tariff organization. We want protection to Canada industries.

"With regard to the Imperial Federation plan, we are in full agreement. We are virtually independent of England and question arises only on the right of veto concerning the entry of new members into the Canadian Parliament.

"As to the financial troubles in Newfoundland, Peter Greenaway is in control, and he has been freed from it. It is my belief, though that Newfoundland is going to find it rather hard to meet governmental expenses."

CREVE COEUR REGATTA.

All Arrangements for the Races Will Be Completed This Evening.

TO-night the final arrangements for the big regatta at Creve Coeur Lake will be completed. The races have been surveyed and the starting points are being prepared. A large tent on the west side of the lake will serve as a boat house.

A spectators' race will be arranged, open to all, and the starting point is being prepared by the club boats. This race will be run on Saturday, Aug. 31, in connection with the race for the cup to be made at the lake or other water body.

Skiff rowing is becoming fashionable. Last Sunday, G. W. Lens and Gustave Buder, both of St. Louis, won a race at the lake which was won by Buder. The two young attorneys will again measure blades Sunday, Sept. 1, at Creve Coeur Lake.

LONDON ATHLETIC TEAM STARTS.

The English Lads Who Will Compete in America, Leave Home.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—A large crowd of people gathered at the Eastern Railroad station this morning to witness the departure of the London Athletic Club and Cambridge University teams for Liverpool, where they embark on the Cunard Line steamship for Australia bound for New York to compete in the games from Yale University.

TRYING THE LITTLE ONES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The first of the trials to decide who will represent the United States will represent the country in the coming international race with Spruce IV.

The trials will be held at the Cunard Building.

THE MOUND CITY ROWING CLUB'S JUNIOR BARGE CREW.

F. ZOAGER, J. PROMINACK, M. BEGLE, G. YEAGER, P. ZOUCHIE, G. ECCLESBACKER, H. MEYER.

How They Stand.

GAMES Played. Won. Lost. Per Cent.

Clubs.	Games Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Baltimore	108	62	36	.582
Cincinnati	109	63	46	.573
Pittsburgh	109	63	46	.573
Boston	99	56	43	.563
Philadelphia	101	56	45	.554
Brooklyn	99	54	45	.545
Cincinnati	99	54	45	.545
Chicago	103	54	49	.545
New York	84	31	62	.329
Washington	103	31	72	.300

BASEBALL NOTES.

A New York exchange wants the club of that city to purchase Arlie Latham from the Cincinnati.

Hugh Duffy has batted safely in the last two games and failed but once in the last thirty-five.

Louisville offered Boston $1,500 for the release of Third Baseman Jimmy Collins, who was loaned to the club by President Soden of Boston. President Soden has requested President Young of the National League to return him to the Boston Club.

Major F. P. T. Murphy of the Boston Club has been offered the management of the New York team, and it is thought he will accept.

Ed McKeon of the Spiders is something of a run-getter as well as being a good fielder and batter. One week ago he made his 150th hit.

Pitcher McDermott of the Colonels is on a tie with George Cuppy of the Clevelands for the title of being the most exasperating slow player in the National League.

HE DOES OBJECT.

A Pike County "Kurd" Tells His Story of Arbor's Arrest.

Editor Post-Dispatch.

Dear Sir—Have the wheelmen of St. Louis a monopoly on all good roads of Pike?

I wish to ask the above question for information. We have in this county more than 100 miles of the best roads in the State. These roads were built by the taxpayers, and to keep them up and in good repair we have to pay this toll except wheelmen, who have been allowed to use them free of charge.

The Ruby fighting arena and Prof. Jim Robertson's hotel were burned to the ground.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

Young Griffy, who was released the other day, has been rearrested because the ball he gave was found untagged.

He is now in jail.

EMPLOYMENT GROUPING.

Sleep
With One
Eye
Open
And Use Post-Dispatch Wants.

Success Will Be Yours.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.
Three lines ($20 words, 5 cents; each additional line, 5 cents). Any drug store is authorized to receive want advertisements for the Post-Dispatch.

ACCOUNTANT—Wanted: one or two sets of books to keep by expert accountant; reference No. 1; charges moderate. Address G 416, this office.

BOY—Wanted: situation by a boy of 16 years old to learn a trade. Wm. Klein, 1918 Arlington av.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted: by a young man of 21, engaged in bookkeeping or salesmen. Address O 416, this office.

CLERK—Situation: clerk in dry goods store by experienced youth. Address C 416, this office.

COACHMAN—Wanted: position as coachman private family; good horsemanship and willing to work; good city reference. Add. P 416, this office.

CARPENTER—Carpenter wants jobbing; will work $12 a day or by the job; good workman. Address T 411, this office.

ENGINEER—First-class machinist and licensed engineer wanted; good references. Address E 416, this office.

HOUSEMAN—Man wants permanent home; experienced with horses, cows, gardens, flowers, tools, etc.; wants to attend horse shows, chicken, garden, lawn, etc.; best city references. Add. G 417, this office.

MAN—Situation wanted by a young man 21 years of age; would like private or business household; good reference. Add. M 416, this office.

MAN—Wanted, position by young man in store of some kind; reference given. Add. A 417, this office.

MAN—Wanted, situation by young man in private family; good references. Add. J. 416, this office.

MAN—Wanted, situation by a young white male; house wanted; wants to attend horse shows, chicken, garden, lawn, etc.; best city references. Breen, 230 S. 4th st.

MAN—Situation as coachman; will do housework, wait on table; best city reference. Address Wm. M. Weston, Mo.

MAN—Situation wanted by colored man, with A 416, this office; with private family. Add. R. 416, this office.

MAN AND WIFE—Situation by man and wife in private family; first-class reference. Call 1715 Franklin av.; five years in last place. T. Laing.

MAN—Situation by an experienced bookkeeper and cashier; young man; educated; quiet and correct; good references; wants to pay; reference; and bonds. Address F 411, this office.

STONE CUTTER—A good marble and stone cutter, letter and tracer, general workman, wants a job. Address Robert H., 408 S. 11th st., Terre Haute, Ind.

SHIPPING CLERK—Shipping clerk of 4 years' experience; wants to go into business for himself in the city; desires to make a change; first-class recommendations from present employers. Add. E 404, this office.

HELP WANTED—MALE.
Five cents per line each insertion. Any drug store is authorized to receive want advertisements for the Post-Dispatch.

AGENTS WANTED—Agents to sell a well-known face powder; liberal commission. EII Clark av.

BOX WANTED—Box bakery. 2005 Geyer av.

BOY WANTED—A bright young boy, 16 to 18 years of age, for wholesale manufacturing business; wants to go into his own business. Address in own handwriting E 416, this office.

BOY WANTED—To work in drug store; best of references required; wages $10. Boston Drug Co., 12th and Franklin.

BOOKKEEPER WANTED—An expert bookkeeper for a few days. Add. S 414, this office.

CHANDLER-MAKER WANTED—Experienced chandler; wants to go into his own business. The Bell-Hickey Mfg. Co., 706-710 St. Charles st.

CARPENTERS WANTED—2 carpenters to lay flooring; $12.50 per day. Call 487 St. Ferdinand av.

CARPENTER WANTED—Carpenter to repair old sleds and boxes; three days only; wages $10. Address F 414, this office.

CLERK WANTED—A bright young man to learn the retail shoe business. Apply at The Fair, 7th and Franklin av.

DENTIST WANTED—A first-class operator and plate worker. Add. F 417, this office.

FREE treatment for all diseases at Franklin Avenue Free Dispensary. 1214 Franklin av.

LABORERS WANTED—Laborers. Apply on the west side of Main and Easton avs. Frum-Bambach Construction Co.

MEN AND WOMEN WANTED—To learn the hair trade; two months required; catalog free. St. Louis Barber College, 816 N. 6th st.

MAN WANTED—A young man. Apply at 415 Lucas av.

PORTER WANTED—Colored porter in barber shop. 300 N. Leffingwell av.

SHOVELERS WANTED—75 shovelers; $1.50 per day. 9th and Olive st., L. Kennan.

SHOEMAKER WANTED—For repairing; single man. Apply at 2107 Franklin av.

SALESMAN WANTED—Salesman to take orders for a specialty; good pay to worker. 1808 Morgan st.

TEAMS AND LABORS WANTED—Fruit-Bambrick Construction Co., 800 S. Spring av.

TRANS SHADe MAKERS WANTED—First-class window shade makers. Chas. Duerwerth, W. F. Co., 214 N. Broadway.

22 Pounds Granulated $1

Cousins sell to day; also a large elegant moss rose pitch given with one pound of 60-cent tea. Cousin, 6th and Market sta.

RUBICAN SHORTHAND COLLEGE

701-2-4 Union Trust building, Seventh and Olive st. We qualify our graduates for the best paying positions; thorough course by mail.

$3.00 UP—Pants to order. Morris Tailoring Co., 210 N. 6th st. cor. Olive, 2d floor.

$12.50 UP—Suits and overcoats to order. Morris Tailoring Co., 8th and Olive

HELP WANTED—MALE.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

GIRL WANTED—In country printing office; expenses paid. Call at 1115 Pine st.

GIRLS WANTED—Expert laundry girls for washing. Apply at once. R. F. Mason's Pig. Co., 8d and Vine st.

GIRL WANTED—A girl to help in kitchen and help bake bread. 3835 Piney ave.

GIRLS WANTED—First-class machine girls and spinners on one custom pants. 625 Locust st. room 14.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Housegirl at 8225 S. 2d st.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Housegirl at 316 S. 14th.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Girl for general house-work; small family; references. 1815 Sarah st.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Girl for general house-work; 8212 Finney av.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Girl for general house-work; small family; good wages. 4171 West Belle pl.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—A girl to do light house-work. Call this evening. 2238 Olive st.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Girl for general house-work; small family. W. G. Schofield, 8225 Ridge av.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—A good girl for general house-work. 4404 Forest Park boulevard.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Cook also wash and ironing. 1811 E. 10th.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Two girls for house and dining-room work. Wellington, Weiss place.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Girl to assist in general household; family of two once. 4481 Eastern av.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—A girl for general house-work; good family. 8125 Cook av.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—First-class girl to cook and do general housework. Call at 1815 Pine st.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Good German girl for general house-work; no washing. 2731 Morgan st.

HOUSEGIRL WANTED—Nice girl for general house-work; good family as cook or laundress; first-class references. 4482 Delmar av.

COOK—First-class cook wants position in private family; references. 1821 Coleman st.

COOK—Situation wanted by experienced lady with good family as cook or laundress; first-class references. 4410 Washington boulevard.

COOK—Wanted, a place to cook wash and iron and do laundry. Call at 1815 Pine st.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—First-class dressmaker would like a few more engagements in families; reasonable. Address T 416, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Fashionable dressmaker, cutter, tailor wants more engagements in families; very reasonable. Address 8225 Olive st.

DRRESSMAKER—A girl for general house-work; small family; references. Address P 416, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

DRRESSMAKER—Wanted, situation by dressmaker to do sewing at home or go out by the day or week. Add. M 417, this office.

THREE MEN SHOT.

Riot in an Ohio Town in Which Pistols Were Used.

WAUPORKEETTA, O., Aug. 27.—A riot took place here this afternoon in which pistols, clubs and stones were used. Three men were shot and dangerously wounded.

IN FRONT OF A TRAIN.

Frightful Suicide of an Illinois Banker in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 27.—J. V. Lewis, a banker of Chatham, Ill., committed suicide this morning by throwing himself in front of a passenger train passing just west of the depot in Wauwatosa.

SHE LEFT NO TRACE.

Strange Disappearance of a Michigan Lady While Walking Home.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Philo Schuermann, wife of the manager of the C. Schuermann Brewing Co., left the residence of John Nelson, in West Houghton, at 2:30 last night to walk home, a distance of less than two miles. Since then absolutely no news has been found and foul play is feared. Searchers have been looking for clues and the lake may be dragged.

RIVER NEWS.

The gauge at St. Louis Thursday showed a height of 8.2 feet in the river and rising fast. The present rise is pleasing to steamboaters, who have had a hard time this summer.

The Gem was in from Keokuk Tuesday with a fair complement of passengers and freight. She will return Wednesday at 4 p.m.

The Sibley arrived from Paul Tuesday morning with a large number of passengers. She will depart Saturday evening.

The D. L. & W. will leave from Paul Tuesday morning with a good trip of freight.

The Great Eagle was out for Grand Tower Tuesday at 4 p.m. and had a good trip and passengers.

EAST ST. LOUIS NEWS.

Deputy Sheriff John Baird, Jr., leaved on a confinement of clothing in a freight car to the claim of Dr. T. J. Cunningham, firm of Cunningham Bros. and against P. M. Roy. The clothing was in transit to Monday.

The City Council will meet this afternoon to formally accept an invitation from Com. of Trades and Labor Union to attend the Labor Day demonstration at Gross' Park.

Charles Sauer, suspended over railroading at Belleville, was discharged Monday evening and sustained severe injuries to his head and spine. Sauer is a watchmaker.

The funeral of William S. Williams, the blacksmith, was held at his home, No. 214 South Fifth street, Monday, will take place to St. Peter's Cemetery this afternoon.

John Donald was fined $5 and costs by Justice Connnancon this morning for beating William Taylor. Both are colored.

James Hartman, colored, was locked up by Officer McNeal Monday night for carrying concealed weapons.

Day Tate was 12 in for drunkenness by the unknown draker found in the river at East Carondelet Monday was buried in the city cemetery.

Hannah Sauer and Miss Elizabeth Boiman, both of East St. Louis, were licensed to marry at Belleville Monday.

Hannah McNeal and Andrew Nealey, two colored men, got into a dispute at Third street and Broadway at 11 o'clock this morning which resulted in the stabbing of McNeal. The other would not be serious. McNeal is locked up at the Police Station. McNeal is an employee of the Tudor Milling Co.

BELLEVILLE NEWS.

Miss Angel Stanley and Miss Onda Heinzman were fined $5 by Justice Connnancon yesterday for violating the police-hall ordinance. They did not appear for trial, but were licensed by Attorney L. D. Tamm, who served them with a notice of violations of the ordinance, but pleaded guilty rather than appear in a public trial.

Mike Domnick Schaefer, residing at Mascoutah, died yesterday at the Anna Insane Asylum, of which she had been an inmate about three years. She was buried at Mascoutah today.

A hand-stand is being erected on the public square during the fair.

The Grecian Pavilion will give a ball at Hunt's Hall Sunday night.

Mrs. Walter Levee of St. Louis visited relatives here Sunday.

A 5-year-old son of J. P. Klein died last night at the family residence, 21 Fairmount.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rodenhouse have returned from Waterloo, where they spent several weeks with relatives.

Miss Edna Feltine returned from a visit to Miss Maggie Feltine of Turkey Hill.

Charles Hartman left to-day for Milwaukee to enter the German-American Teachers Seminary there.

William George Greenwell, who was the guest of Mrs. Charles Field.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman of East St. Louis; Charles H. Starkey of St. Louis, and Jennie Thompson of St. Louis.

C. G. Hoffman conveyed lot 3 in survey 712 to Frederick Groff yesterday for $750.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tiedemann celebrated their wedding anniversary yesterday at their home in O'Fallon.

An infant daughter of Jersey Randle, of St. Louis, was born yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Igel celebrated the sixth anniversary of their marriage yesterday.

Katie Ruth, of St. Louis, is the guest of Mrs. Otto Eckhart.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert Petzold took place at the Hill Cemetery yesterday under the auspices of the Knights and Ladies of Honor.

THE MARKETS.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—The Vienna Grain Congress now holding its meeting estimates the American wheat crop at 290,000,000 bushels, Canada at 290,000,000 bushels, India 290,000,000 bushels, against 280,000,000 last year. France 22 per cent less or 290,000,000 bushels, and Germany 20 per cent more or 290,000,000 bushels. Wheat and oats are better, but rye decreased.

Spot grain market shows Bradstreet's statement showing $600,000 increase in the world's stock was another bearish factor that added to the decline.

Spot grain—Much stronger on Call than expected, considering the depressed future market.

Wheat—Early calls reported steady, but demand weak.

Barley—Wheat and barley were very small at that market were very much smaller.

Russian shipments were regular, but the Vienna Grains' report was bullish, in that it indicated a fall in the world's wheat less than last year.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Wheat—The market was quiet, but the general market was still strong.

Barley—The market was quiet,

LINDELL HOTEL,

ST. LOUIS.
Under the new management, remains
OPEN for business while undergoing extensive improvements.
BRADY & DONOVAN,
Proprietors.

CITY NEWS.

Private matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsbear, 314 Pine.

Dr. E. C. Chase.

Sixth and Locust. Set of teeth, $5.

ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Rates at Hotels for the Accommodation of Visitors.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 27.—Alexander W.
Smith, Chief of the Department of Public
Comfort of the coming Exposition, gave out to-day the following statement:

"Take pleasure in announcing to the public that sufficient accommodations have been made to afford a comfortable care for the average attendance upon the Exposition. Rates for accommodations at regular hotels will be from $1 to $2 per day. European plan, and $2 to $5 per day, American plan. Lodging and board—house rates will be from 50 cents to $1 for lodgers, and from $1 to $2.50 per day for lodging and board. We used and monthly engagements can be made at usual reduced rates. No reasonable person can complain of these rates, and the criticism of the people of Atlanta or the plea of the unreasonable or exorbitant charges is entirely unfounded and exceedingly unjust."

THE DEADLY CROSSING.

St. Louis Lady Injured by a Wagon's
Collision With a Train.

PALMER LAKE, Colo., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Lorenzo of St. Louis, Mo., was severely injured by the wagon she was riding in colliding with a train. A short distance from the station the Denver & Rio Grande and San Miguel and Colorado wagon road. Henry Lee Craig was driving Mrs. Lorenzo and her little son for a junket. As they neared the tracks a Rio Grande train dashed up, and the team and wagon were thrown around and smashed against the train. Mrs. Lorenzo was flung out, her collar bone and wrist broken, her driver leaped with the little boy in his arms. He was slightly hurt and the child escaped injury.

YOUTH'S SUITS.

Fine garments which we know you cannot buy elsewhere. Young men who want to wear fashionable clothing, can be well suited in our Clothing Department, second floor, of our Merchant Tailoring Establishment.

MILLS & AVERILL,
Broadway and Pine.

INSANITY AND ARSON.

Sleeping Family Endangered by a
Mad Missouri Mother's Death.

NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 27.—Mrs. John Grimley, living near Montevello, in a mad fit set fire to her house while her husband and five little children were asleep. The falling in of the kitchen roof awoke the husband and he narrowly saved himself and the children. Mrs. Ella L. Loeffelholz, wife twenty tons of hay, was burned at the same time. Mrs. Grimley was captured in the town of John Reddick. She had a handful of matches. She was sent to the Nevada Insane Asylum, of which she had previously been an inmate.

Tooth-like orient pearls, set in cushions of rose;

A breath like the perfume the toilette bestows.

These are charms to win hearts when all
other charms fade,

But they can't be preserved without SOZO-
DON'TS aid.

Drowned or Murdered.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27.—Word comes from the Chilian Government of the disappearance and supposed drowning of Capt. Ernest Steiger, of the American vessel "Olcot," of Oslo, Otto De Vries Dutch; Larssen, Norwegian, and Edward Onopu, three of the crew of the American vessel W. W. Crapo. They were last seen in the Columbia River, the Pacific, de Poidich and never returned. A rumor that Capt. Steiger was murdered by the other men is being investigated by Chilian officials.

Mackinac and Return $7.00.

Via the Clover Leaf and magnificent C. & S. steamers. To Toledo, Detroit or Put-in-Bay, $6. Tickets good going only Aug. 28 and limited to fifteen days for the return. Only a limited number of tickets will be sold. Ticket offices, 600 Olive street and Union Station.

That Colorado Bull Fight.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 27.—Hugh R. Steele, Mayor of Cripple Creek, says the bull fight could have been prevented had Secretary of War H. M. Teller been present on the ground attending to his duty. "In fact," said he, "there was a strong sentiment against the show, and had a determined effort been made to prevent it, the prodigious benefits that would arise from a uniformity in legal rule."

Change of Office.

On Aug. 26 the Burlington Route City Ticket Office will be removed to the south-west corner of Broadway and Olive street. C. L. Grice, City Passenger and Ticket Agent.

Burned to Death While Drunk.

THE BOURBON, N. J., Aug. 27.—Lydia Frame, of Hedges, a young woman, was found burned to death in a rocking chair in the little cabin near Pennington, occupied by Herman Hageman, a half-breed Indian, for whom she had a sweetheart. The couple had been on a drunken carousal Saturday night, and the accident, for such it is, occurred that evening. Hageman has returned home that evening, but Hageman says he was afraid to report it. He may be arrested, pending investigation.

PURE, HARMLESS, SATISFYING

MAIL POUCH
TOBACCO
Nicotine Neutralized
ANTI-NERVOUS
ANTI-DYSPEPTIC

BRANDT'S
School Shoes

No Advance in Prices on account
Rise in Leather.

Up to Date.

NEW GOODS. If you want Shoes that will give your Children good service try our Extra Wearers, made expressly for School Wear.

CHILD'S Dongola Patent Leather Tip, square toes, sizes 5 to 8, at.....	75c
CHILD'S Dongola Patent Leather Tip, square toes, $1.00 8½ to 10½, at.....	$1.00
MISS' Dongola Button, Dongola Tip, heavy sole, $1.50 11 to 12, at.....	$1.50
BOYS' Satin Calf Lace, tip, sizes 2½ to 5½, at.....	$1.50
YOUTH'S Satin Calf Button and Lace, sizes 11 to 2, at.....	$1.25

J. G. BRANDT SHOE CO., Broadway and Lucas Av. MAIL ORDERS FILLED.

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK

Of Our Great "CLEARING OUT" of Ladies' Shoes.

NO SHOES SOLD TO DEALERS AT THESE PRICES.

We will continue this sale until Saturday night, but no longer, as our Men's shoes now arrived, and we must have the room. The deepest cut in the history of all shoe sales in this city.

All $2.00 Button and Lace goes at.....

All $2.50 Button and Lace goes at.....

All $5.00 Button and Lace goes at.....

All $6.00 Button and Lace goes at.....

We will not exchange shoes under any circumstances; see that you are fitted properly. No money refunded!

SMITH & STOUGHTON, 610 Olive Street.

YOUTH'S SUITS.

Fine garments which we know you cannot buy elsewhere. Young men who cannot afford to pay high prices, yet want to wear fashionable clothing, can be well suited in our Clothing Department, second floor, of our Merchant Tailoring Establishment.

MILLS & AVERILL,
Broadway and Pine.

INSANITY AND ARSON.

Sleeping Family Endangered by a
Mad Missouri Mother's Death.

NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 27.—Mrs. John Grimley, living near Montevello, in a mad fit set fire to her house while her husband and five little children were asleep. The falling in of the kitchen roof awoke the husband and he narrowly saved himself and the children. Mrs. Ella L. Loeffelholz, wife twenty tons of hay, was burned at the same time. Mrs. Grimley was captured in the town of John Reddick. She had a handful of matches. She was sent to the Nevada Insane Asylum, of which she had previously been an inmate.

Tooth-like orient pearls, set in cushions of rose;

A breath like the perfume the toilette bestows.

These are charms to win hearts when all
other charms fade,

But they can't be preserved without SOZO-
DON'TS aid.

Drowned or Murdered.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27.—Word comes from the Chilian Government of the disappearance and supposed drowning of Capt. Ernest Steiger, of the American vessel "Olcot," of Oslo, Otto De Vries Dutch; Larssen, Norwegian, and Edward Onopu, three of the crew of the American vessel W. W. Crapo. They were last seen in the Columbia River, the Pacific, de Poidich and never returned. A rumor that Capt. Steiger was murdered by the other men is being investigated by Chilian officials.

Mackinac and Return $7.00.

Via the Clover Leaf and magnificent C. & S. steamers. To Toledo, Detroit or Put-in-Bay, $6. Tickets good going only Aug. 28 and limited to fifteen days for the return. Only a limited number of tickets will be sold. Ticket offices, 600 Olive street and Union Station.

That Colorado Bull Fight.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 27.—Hugh R. Steele, Mayor of Cripple Creek, says the bull fight could have been prevented had Secretory of War H. M. Teller been present on the ground attending to his duty. "In fact," said he, "there was a strong sentiment against the show, and had a determined effort been made to prevent it, the prodigious benefits that would arise from a uniformity in legal rule."

Change of Office.

On Aug. 26 the Burlington Route City Ticket Office will be removed to the south-west corner of Broadway and Olive street. C. L. Grice, City Passenger and Ticket Agent.

Burned to Death While Drunk.

THE BOURBON, N. J., Aug. 27.—Lydia Frame, of Hedges, a young woman, was found burned to death in a rocking chair in the little cabin near Pennington, occupied by Herman Hageman, a half-breed Indian, for whom she had a sweetheart. The couple had been on a drunken carousal Saturday night, and the accident, for such it is, occurred that evening. Hageman has returned home that evening, but Hageman says he was afraid to report it. He may be arrested, pending investigation.

Delayed Reports.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Board of Health is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ROCKPORT, Mo., Aug. 27.—The weather is favorable for the biggest fair ever held in Atchison County, which opened at this time. The exhibit of live stock is in proportion with the immense crop in the county. The exhibit of live stock is better than ever before. The old buildings are erected in a log cabin, and the old-timers of Northwest Missouri will congregate and organize a Historical Society. The entries on the speed programme are large.

Mineral Water vs. Common Water.

A Sulphur and Salt Bath is refreshing and invigorating. Try one. Balcher Bath-house, 1 to 12 O'Fallon street.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Board of Health is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The weather is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The weather is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The weather is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The weather is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The weather is after the Rev. Dr. Houghton of the Little Church Around the Corner, because of his conduct in the board of censors of marriages performed by him. Dr. Macey, Registrar of Records, reported that Dr. Houghton was the most popular one in the city. The offense is punishable by fine, but an attempt to prosecute is rarely made.

Wabash Harvest Excursions.

Tickets will be on sale Aug. 29, Sept. 10 and 21, to the West, Southwest and Northwest, at greatly reduced rates. Ticket offices, southeast corner Broadway and Olive street and Union Station.

Atchison County Fair.

Special to